OUR VISION

A core belief of our school is that every church in the world, by nature, is called to prepare servant leaders to follow Jesus Christ and serve God's dream for a transformed world. The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro, now in our twentieth year, invites participants to a deeper relationship with God and with others in community, as we explore both an inward journey of personal transformation and an outward journey of sacred service. Our hope is to nurture a generation of Christian leadership which brings renewal to our churches, creates life-giving alternatives in the workplace and home, and calls forth creative new ministries to serve our local community, and helps to shape our future in accordance with God's dream.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP: A PATH AND A PRACTICE

THE PATH OF SERVANT LEADERSHIP: THE FIVE-FOLD PATH OF SACRED SERVICE

1. Serving God with the whole of our being.
2. Serving ourselves as sacred instruments of divine co-creation, by keeping ourselves whole through proper diet, rest, exercise, prayer, growth, healing.
3. Serving the divine image in others, by recognizing that everybody (everything) we meet is the face of God.
4. Serving in our local community, by paying attention to what "stirs your soul" or "breaks your heart" and discerning what you realistically can do and are called to do in the local community.
5. Serving the planet as a global citizen ("citizen of the kingdom"), by nurturing conscious awareness of the impact our lifestyle, decisions, energy and actions are having on the planet and its peoples.

THE PRACTICE OF SERVANT LEADERSHIP

The content of servant leadership, as we teach it, invites us to "practice resurrection" in our daily life through the following three practices:

COMMUNION: Prayer and the Practice of Presence

COMPASSION: Awakening the Intelligence of the Heart

CO-CREATION: Alignment with Divine Power and Purpose

CURRICULUM (Revised and Restructured)

Our work continues to evolve. Over the past several years, we have made substantial revisions to the core curriculum. The result is a significantly more clear, vivid, emotionally resonant and conceptually coherent sequence of teaching and practices.

Our revised curriculum guides participants through a carefully designed process of genuine emotional and spiritual transformation.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP 1: FOUNDATIONS FOR GROWTH AND TRANSFORMATION

*Tuesdays from 6:30–8:30 p.m. or Thursdays from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.
beginning September 15 or 17 for 12 weeks*

Servant leadership is a paradoxical term which illuminates the nature of truly effective leadership at every level of life (family, church, community, work-place) and also brings us to the very heart of Christian discipleship, the Way of Jesus. Our fresh, practice-centered curriculum offers a compelling model for contemporary Christian living and a spiritual path that connects our faith with our daily life. This foundational course provides a clear framework for responding to the biblical call to a “new consciousness” and a “new kingdom” through the three central practices of Servant Leadership: Communion, Compassion and Co-creation.

Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: The Rev. Timothy Patterson and Ruth D. Anderson, Ph.D.

CALL: CO-CREATION AND THE COMMITMENT TO SACRED SERVICE

(Prerequisite: Servant Leadership 1)

Tuesdays from 6:30–8:30 p.m. or Thursdays from 10 a.m.–12 p.m. beginning September 15 or 17 for 12 weeks

What is the “call” of your life? What is the particular “piece” of God’s Dream that has been specifically entrusted to you? What is the purpose for which God has brought you into the world, and what is the particular role you are able to play now, in these circumstances and in this moment of your life? What has your entire life, to this point, prepared you for? We will explore these and other related questions through prayer, reading, reflection, autobiographical remembrance, exploration of individual gifts and dialogue in circles of trust, as we support one another in discerning God’s call and in bringing our lives into greater alignment with divine power and purpose. Also, this class will examine, at this point in humanity’s evolution, what is our call as a human community? As David Korten suggests: “If there is to be a human future, we must bring ourselves into balanced relationship with one another and the Earth. This requires building economies with heart.” This class will include exploration of our call as members of a global community as the larger context for our own personal sense of call.

Location: Roe Library, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: Ruth D. Anderson, Ph.D. and the Rev. Timothy Patterson

COMPANION CLASSES

For the most part, there are no pre-requisites to any of these classes. See specific classes for requirements, and see registration form for class fees.

THE SPIRITUAL PRACTICE OF GRATITUDE

Mondays from 10:30 a.m.–12 p.m. beginning September 14 for 8 weeks

Gratitude can be a transformative force in our lives. When we offer thanks to God or to one another, this gratefulness has the potential to gift us with renewal, reflection and reconnection. Using the fascinating work of Robert Emmons, Ph.D. in his book Thanks: How the New Science of Gratitude Can Make You Happier and the work of Brother David Steindl-Rast in Gratefulness, the Heart of Prayer, we will reflect on the meaning of gratefulness in our lives. As a community of practice, each week we will learn several spiritual practices which will focus our hearts. Also, we will check in with each other about our discoveries of the grace that awaits us in our everyday lives as we shift our awareness to that for which we are grateful.

Location: 211 W. Fisher Avenue, The Upper Room

Led by: Ruth D. Anderson, Ph.D.

“Gratitude is literally one of the few things that can measurably change people’s lives.”

–Robert Emmons

“You already possess all you need to be genuinely happy. All you truly need is the awareness of all you have. Today, not tomorrow or the next week or next year. Gratitude induces this awakening.”

–Sarah Ban Breathnach

SACRED ACTIVISM: BEING PRESENT TO CHILDREN IN POVERTY

September 28, October 26 and November 30, 2009 from 4–6 p.m.

Come to any of our monthly meetings to hear about our work with children in poverty in our community. We go to a local community housing environment and offer after-school programming two times a week. Come and see if this might be a volunteer opportunity that is life-giving for you at this point in your life.

Location: 211 W. Fisher Avenue, First Floor Conference Room

Facilitated by: Ruth D. Anderson, Ph.D. and other Spiritual Activists

TO DO JUSTICE

Tuesdays from 12:30–2 p.m. beginning September 15 for 10 weeks

“What might we as a society and in Christian community gain by practicing an ethic that considers the needs and interests of others along with our own self-interest? How would we need to reconsider the economic value placed upon different forms of work in American society?” These are just two of the many questions posed in the book To Do Justice: A Guide for Progressive Christians, edited by Rebecca Todd Peters and Elizabeth Hinson-Hasty. This book will be the focus of a 10-week class offered by the Rev. Frank Dew at Greensboro Urban Ministry. The class starts at 12:30 p.m. at the service for the guests at Greensboro Urban Ministry and then transitions into a time for discussion of the book in the chaplain's office.

Location: Greensboro Urban Ministry, 305 W. Lee Street, Greensboro

Led by: The Rev. Frank Dew and Jim Keith

“When each person is exercising her gift, she becomes an initiating center of life... No gift is unimportant. There are not lesser gifts. Each is crucial to the proper functioning of the Body; each contributes to the rich diversity needed by the Church for its work within the total organism of humanity.”

-Gordon Cosby

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER

Wednesdays from 12–1 p.m. beginning September 16 for 10 weeks

We will meditate in silence for 20 minutes, followed by journaling and further sharing in circle format. Together, we will become a community of meditation as we explore being Present to the love of God together. All levels of seekers most welcome.

Location: 211 W. Fisher Avenue, The Upper Room

Led by: Ruth D. Anderson, Ph.D.

“The practice of centering prayer is giving God consent to do what is needed in our lives, turning everything over to God and trusting God with it... In Centering Prayer we let go of all thoughts and words and simply wait before God, giving God access to our entire being, making ourselves totally available to God.”

-Killian Noe, Finding Our Way Home

FROM WILD MAN TO WISE MAN: A MEN'S SPIRITUALITY GROUP

Wednesdays from 6–8 p.m. beginning September 16 for 10 weeks

Drawing on Richard Rohr's book, From Wild Man to Wise Man, this men's spirituality group will become a center of learning, devoting study time to deepen our faith and knowledge; a place for pastoral care as we pray and support one another in our own spiritual formation; and a safe place where we can speak from our “true self,” not just from the head but the heart. The group will begin with a meal together at 5:30 p.m. (bring your own or purchase a takeout meal from Holy Trinity's kitchen, available beginning at 5:30 p.m.). We will follow Rohr's outline for men's groups. During the first section (lasting about 30 minutes) we will discuss what is going on in our lives. The second section is given to the study of Rohr's book. The last section will focus on individual needs, praying for personal ministries and for the concerns of all members. Timing will be flexible, and we will adapt each section according to the group's needs and interests.

“If we do not transform our pain we will transmit it in some form.”

-Richard Rohr

Location: 211 W. Fisher Avenue, The Upper Room

Led by: Paul C. Volk, MSW, Spiritual Director

TRANSFORMING CONFLICT: WORKING WITH DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

Wednesdays from 6:30–8 p.m. beginning October 7 for 6 weeks

Our speech is the main way we communicate with one another, but so often we take the things we say for granted and very seldom do we examine what we say or hear from a place of presence or awareness. This lack of awareness can be the source of conflict, both large and small. Becoming aware of our communication and the feelings and needs behind it can help us to become better communicators and enable us to navigate conflict more effectively. We can also learn to hear what others say through a lens of understanding and compassion, which renders us less vulnerable to being hurt by those we love. Using the process of Nonviolent Communication (NVC) as taught by Dr. Marshall Rosenberg and using circle practice, we will learn and practice NVC through bringing our own issues and concerns to our community of practice.

Location: 211 W. Fisher Avenue, First Floor Conference Room

Led by: Amelia Poole, M.A.

WORLD CAFÉ: CONVERSATIONS ON THE GOOD STUFF

Thursdays in October from 6–7:30 p.m. beginning October 1 for 5 weeks

The World Café is a conversational process based on principles that reveal a deeper living network pattern through which we co-create our collective future. These conversations on “that which matters” link and build on each other as people move between groups, cross-pollinate ideas and discover new insights into the questions or issues that are most important to those gathered. The World Café can make the collective intelligence of a group visible, increasing people’s capacity for effective action in pursuit of common aims. Come and contribute your ideas on the theme “Conversations on the Good Stuff.”

Location: 215 W. Fisher Avenue, Sacred Garden Bookstore

Led by: Servant Leadership School Staff

SPIRITUAL PRACTICES on SATURDAYS

These classes offer an opportunity for students and for the general public to sample practices used in The Servant Leadership School before making a longer commitment to a class or workshop.

INTRODUCTION TO WALKING MEDITATION USING THE LABYRINTH

Saturday, October 3, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

What do you do in the labyrinth? If you have been curious about the labyrinth as a spiritual tool, this two-hour workshop will provide you with gentle instruction and support for beginning your labyrinth journey of transformation. If you are a veteran walker, you will benefit from this “mini retreat” in the context of a supportive community of labyrinth pilgrims walking and praying together. Although there is no “right” or “wrong” way to walk the labyrinth, some simple guidelines are helpful, as the labyrinth can appear quite awesome at first. Lauren Artress says there are many reasons to walk a labyrinth – solace, strength, clarity, celebration, insight, to quiet the mind or to solve a problem, to name a few. Meet first in Broome Hall, and we will move as a group to the outdoor labyrinth.

*Location: Broome Hall and Outdoor Labyrinth, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
Led by: Marjorie Donnelly, M.Ed.*

INTRODUCTION TO SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Saturday, October 10, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Many people today want to grow in the spiritual life. Among other things, they wonder, “Should I seek and find a spiritual director to help me on my way?” But that soon generates other questions. What exactly is spiritual direction, how do you go about it, and what is supposed to come of it? Marjorie Donnelly, an experienced spiritual director and graduate of the spiritual guidance program of the Shalem Institute of Spiritual Formation will offer answers to your questions and help you explore if spiritual direction is your next step in drawing closer to God.

*Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
Led by: Marjorie Donnelly, M.Ed.*

INTEGRAL TRANSFORMATIVE PRACTICE (ITP): A SPIRITUAL PRACTICE REALIZING THE POTENTIAL OF OUR BODY, HEART, MIND AND SOUL

Saturday, October 24, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Combining movements and gentle stretching, progressive relaxation, visualization, and centering prayer, Integral Transformative Practice allows us to balance and ground our bodies, open our hearts, and clear our minds to become more present to God’s Presence within us and among us. Come ready and dressed for easy movement. Bring a mat if you have one. Materials will be provided to begin a home practice if desired.

*Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church
Led by: The Rev. Timothy Patterson*

DISCOVERING THE ENNEAGRAM: AN INTRODUCTORY WORKSHOP

Saturday, October 17, 2009 from 9 a.m.–4 p.m. (lunch included)

The Enneagram, a nine-point geometric figure which maps the human personality, has roots in the early spirituality of the desert fathers and mothers of the fourth century. In this seminar, the Kebbas introduce the nine Types and discuss how we all have each Type in us; how to use this knowledge for deeper understanding of ourselves and others; and ways this understanding helps us as servant leaders.

Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: The Rev. Elaine Kebba and Tom Kebba, MA, LPC, NCC

“The true value of a human being can be found in the degree to which he has attained liberation from the self.”

–Albert Einstein

“Transformation happens when our ordinary perspective shifts and we attain a new understanding of who we really are. We must remember, however, that awareness of who we really are happens – as do all moments of grace – only always now. When it is all said and done, this is the wisdom of the Enneagram.”

–Russ Hudson and Don Riso

CENTERING PRAYER

Saturday, October 31, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

After a short description of the guidelines on Centering Prayer, we will sit in silence, then journal and share this place of deep silence and connection. Beginners and more practiced participants are most welcome.

Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: Ruth Anderson, Ph.D.

AWAKENING THE INTELLIGENCE OF THE HEART

Saturday, November 7, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Contemporary research, including the work of The HeartMath Institute and others, shows how to transform emotional and mental energy into new, satisfying feelings and intelligent perceptions. These simple practices help to shift our often automatic responses etched into our neural circuitry to an awakening the intelligence of the heart to Divine Presence. These methods focus on positive feelings such as appreciation, care or compassion, which help to create a coherence in our heart rhythms that has been shown to bring the emotions, body and mind into balance.

Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: The Rev. Timothy Patterson

INTRODUCTION TO COMPASSIONATE COMMUNICATION

Saturday, November 21, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Nonviolent Communication (NVC) is a process of communication developed by Dr. Marshall Rosenberg that enables persons to communicate their needs and feelings to others in a way that does not produce shame, blame or guilt in either the speaker or the listener. The process is based on the assumption that the greatest joy one can experience is giving freely to another, and that when everyone's needs are expressed without evaluation or judgment, a solution can be found which meets the needs of everyone. This class will be a brief introduction to the principals and practice of NVC, otherwise known as compassionate communication.

Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: Amelia Poole, M.A.

THREE-YEAR CERTIFICATION PROGRAM FOR THE SERVANT LEADERSHIP SCHOOL OF GREENSBORO

A Certificate of Completion will be awarded to those who satisfactorily complete the three-year course work (approximately 160 hours of classroom instruction/experience) offered through The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro. Application for the class of 2012 is due by January 31, 2010.

The purpose of this Certification is to support our students in their movement towards a “rule of life” as servant leaders. This “rule of life” includes what we call “the five-fold path of sacred service:

1. Serving God with the whole of our being.
2. Serving ourselves as sacred instruments of divine co-creation, by keeping ourselves whole through proper diet, rest, exercise, prayer, growth, healing.
3. Serving the divine image in others, by recognizing that everybody (everything) we meet is the face of God.
4. Serving in our local community, by paying attention to what “stirs your soul” or “breaks your heart” and discerning what you realistically can do and are called to do in the local community.
5. Serving the planet as a global citizen (“citizen of the kingdom”), by nurturing conscious awareness of the impact our lifestyle, decisions, energy and actions are having on the planet and its peoples.

Walking the Labyrinth Weekend and Facilitator Training with

LAUREN ARTRESS

*November 13–15, 2009
and November 16–17, 2009*

Lauren Artress is the leading scholar, author and speaker on the labyrinth in the world today. Within the past twenty years, her work has guided an international movement that is introducing thousands of labyrinths into churches, hospitals, businesses and other settings.

Dr. Artress, president and founder of Veriditas, “The Voice of the Labyrinth Movement,” is the author of three books about the labyrinth. Her first book, Walking a Sacred Path: Rediscovering the Labyrinth as a Spiritual Practice, has become standard reading for anyone wanting to know more about the labyrinth’s universal appeal.

An ordained Episcopal priest, Dr. Artress was Canon Pastor at San Francisco’s Grace Cathedral from 1986–1992. She served as Canon for Special Ministries until August 2004 and was made Honorary Canon in May of 2004.

This will be Dr. Artress’ second visit to Greensboro, where more than a decade ago she helped inspire the vibrant labyrinth ministry currently active at Holy Trinity.

Her visit is sponsored by The Servant Leadership School of Greensboro and Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, with generous support from the Bennett Sims Speaker Fund.

ENNEAGRAM WISDOM CIRCLE: TESTS AND CHALLENGES IN CONSCIOUSNESS

Every other Wednesday from 9–11:30 a.m., September 9–December 18, 2009

Suggested donation: $100

The more we operate in present time, and the more we shift to a higher level of consciousness, the more prepared we are to deal with what Carl Jung called the shadow aspects of who we are. It is time to shed light on these parts of ourselves that offer challenges to our mental, emotional, spiritual and physical expressions of who we are. Frances Vaughan said it best: "There is no such thing as the dark night of the spirit, there is only the dark night of the ego."

Led by: Dee Irwin, Enneagram teacher, spiritual director and retreat leader

A NEW EARTH STUDY GROUP

Six Mondays from 7–9:30 p.m. beginning September 14–October 19

Suggested donation: $100/person or $175/couple

This highly interactive study group, based on Eckhart Tolle's book, A New Earth, will encourage participants to look at their life "purpose." Experiential processes will engage the group so that issues such as: how we make ourselves happy or not; how to get our minds unstuck; managing our ego so it becomes a more effective servant; practicing presence and more will be offered in a safe and supportive learning environment.

Leader: Kevin Haggerty, teacher, counselor, executive coach, consultant for Farr Associates. Kevin's life goal is to help people understand that their purpose in life is to be happy through self-awareness and to share that happiness with their families, friends and community. For further information, call Kevin at 509-5777.

THE ENNEAGRAM AS A TOOL FOR SPIRITUAL PRACTICE

Tuesdays from 6:30–8:30 p.m. beginning September 15 for 10 weeks

Suggested donation: $100

The Enneagram is a comprehensive psycho-spiritual typology that helps us understand our personality and our relationships. It is a map to wholeness that helps us remember who we are and what we came here to do. This class is designed for people who are committed to practicing presence in their daily lives and who wish to use the wisdom of the Enneagram to help deconstruct the false self and reconstruct the true, authentic self.

Location: 211 W. Fisher Avenue

Led by Dee Irwin, Enneagram teacher, spiritual director and retreat leader

CREATIVE CLAY BEADS

Saturday, September 19, 2009 from 10 a.m.–4 p.m.

Suggested donation: $50–65 (includes lunch and materials)

Polymer clay is a user-friendly medium for artists and non-artists alike. Participants will work together in a step-by-step process to create their own polymer beads. Ideas for making your own jewelry or gifts are provided.

LAYERS OF THE LANDSCAPE

Saturday, September 26, 2009 from 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

There is no cost for this event, but please register with Healing Ground.

Learn how to garden and landscape as if all life matters. We are losing our native butterflies and birds through overuse of ornamentals. We can restore our landscapes to healthy ecosystems that are both beautiful and support all life through the use of native plants and trees. This workshop is co-sponsored by the Holy Trinity Greens and Healing Ground.

Location: Broome Hall, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Led by: Judith Kramer, garden designer and master naturalist who has also helped design many of the sacred spaces at Healing Ground

PLAYING WITH PRAYER

Saturday, October 17, 2009 from 10 a.m.–3 p.m.

Suggested donation: $40–60

Prayer is a serious spiritual practice but when it is only proper and somber, it can lose its vitality. Playing with prayer is the opportunity to open your self fully; to use the totality of your senses, imagination, awareness, to be in touch with the many and varied ways that we are connected to and can communicate with the Divine in our everyday lives. To play at prayer is to see new possibilities, new beginnings, new colors, new avenues, and new ways of being. Together, we will look at and experience some of the many and varied routes to prayer, involving not only the mind, but the body and the senses.

Led by: The Rev. Linda Faltin, B.S. R.N., and M.Div., former registered nurse, hospice director and Lutheran pastor who lives in High Point

The Day of Mindfulness and healing will water the seeds of peace in ourselves, in our relationship to our families, our communities, and the earth. Wear loose comfortable clothing. Bring a meditation cushion or bench if you have one and a mat and blanket for lying comfortably on the floor. You are also requested to bring a vegetarian potluck dish to share during our community meal.

“If we want to save our lives, we cannot cling to them but must spend them with abandon. When we are obsessed with bottom lines and productivity, with efficiency of time and motion, and the rational relation of means and ends, with projecting reasonable goals and making a beeline toward them, it seems unlikely that our work will ever bear full fruit, unlikely that we will ever know the fullness of our lives.”
